

I strongly support strong Net Neutrality Regulations, The internet should be regulated like any other utility company. The internet has become as essential to modern life as Electric light, gas heat, and Telephone. Consumers should not be at risk of Corporations Throttling down content they don't like or don't profit from.

Thank you,

David Leite